

Mincemeat

Keen on quality; keen on cost

Our industrial mincemeats are made using Bramley apple that comes with the added advantage of English or Kentish provenance.

Since 1953, Fourayes has been a major grower of English Bramley apples and is now the leading apple-based fruit processor in the UK.

At Fourayes we talk about 'way beyond fruit' and our mincemeats are an example of exactly that.

The Fourayes team boasts over 60 years experience in producing fine quality mincemeat solutions. We use the best-possible quality fruit and raw ingredients to deliver mincemeats that are real taste winners.

But whilst the quality is high, thanks to lean manufacturing and a high degree of production control, the costs are keen.

The Finest Raw Materials

The Bramley apples in our mincemeat carry English or Kentish provenance – a great label-addition.

We use the very best raw materials to create high-quality, ready-to-use products.

- Turkish sultanas and raisins
- Greek currants
- Mixed peel from Italy
- Other top-quality ingredients by request

We can also use branded alcohols or other additions as required in order to create your own distinctive mincemeats.

Provenance

Our Bramley apple comes with Kentish or English provenance and dried fruits as listed above.

Services

The high-capacity plant ensures volume and control: Fourayes industrial mincemeats can be found in products in many high-quality retailers and Food Halls.

We offer state-of-art, high-tolerance computer-enhanced manufacturing together with controlled-environment storage if maturing is required.

Delivery

Fourayes industrial mincemeats can be supplied in 12.5 kilo buckets up to 1 tonne tanks.

Samples

Our fast-turnaround sampling service guarantees samples of 1k to 2 kilo buckets, normally within 3 working days.
